Town Blocks Union Traction Line Because the Track Is Unballasted.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, Ind., Oct. 29 .- The town officials of Fairmount and the Union Traction Company have clashed again. Four squares of the company's track in Fairmount are blocked and the passengers are compelled to transfer there and walk that distance. The cause of the trouble is the alleged slowness of the company in ballasting its tracks. For ten days the tracks have remained unballasted and the proper grade has not been made. The town engineer has urged the company to complete the work, but the latter, it is said, ignored the re-

This morning an ultimatum was issued by the engineer giving the company until noon to-day to begin the work or cars would be stopped from passing over that particular part of the track. The company ignored the demand and the engineer blocked the line.

SERIOUS FIRE AT NOBLESVILLE.

Four Buildings Destroyed and Several Damaged-Loss $7,300. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

NOBLESVILLE, Ind., Oct. 29 .- The most threatening fire for years in this city occurred this afternoon. It began in the umber wareroom of W. Hare & Sons, carriage manufactures, and for a time threatened the very best residence portion of the city. The inflammable nature of the contents of this wareroom made it very difficult to get the fire under control. The structure was consumed as well as the barn of W. N. Evans, the stables of James Boone and Marion Aldred, and serious damage was done to the grocery store of . J. Collier. The fine residence of Daniel Craycraft also caught fire and it was with difficulty that it was put out. Half a dozen other houses caught fire, but by quick work the flames were extinguished. The losses are about as follows: W. Hare & Sons, $4,000; T. J. Collier, $1,000; D. Cray-craft, $1,000; W. N. Evans, $500; James Boone, $300; Marion Aldred, $500.
